

2011 MID-WINTER CONFERENCE

MICHAEL RETTIG
Thursday, January 20
Sponsored by OSDE Special Education Services Division

Michael D. Rettig is the founder of School Scheduling Associates, LLC. He spent 15 years as a professor in the College of Education and Director of the Center for School Leadership at James Madison University (JMU), Harrisonburg, VA. He retired from JMU as Professor Emeritus in June 2006 to work full-time with schools across the country. In addition to his work in higher education, he taught in elementary and middle schools for 10 years and served as a school principal in Virginia for six years. Dr. Rettig has served as a consultant on school scheduling issues in 41 states with over 750 school districts nationally and internationally. He also has conducted hundreds of workshops and has authored or co-authored numerous articles and books on school scheduling and related topics.

JIM GRANT
Friday, January 21
Sponsored by VIRCO and the NAESP Speakers Bureau

Jim Grant is an internationally renowned educator, author and keynote speaker, and is regarded by fellow educators as one of America's most passionate advocates for children. A teaching principal for almost twenty years, he founded Staff Development for Educators (SDE, Inc.), with the goal of creating classrooms where all students can succeed. Jim is currently the Executive Director of SDE. He has authored or co-authored over two dozen books for educators and parents, and is one of the country's most sought-after speakers on education. Jim is a frequent radio and television talk show guest, having appeared on America's Talking on CNBC, The Phil Donahue Show and The Today Show.
