

High School and Middle School Principals –

Are you interested in preparing more low income and minority students for postsecondary education?

Principals and their faculty can use the College Readiness for All Toolbox as an effective set of well-researched tools, lessons learned, resources, and documents designed to do the following:

- Create a college-ready culture for ALL students.
- Enhance student expectations, achievement, and access.
- Provide educators and outreach professionals with self-assessment and evaluation activities.
- Help students and educators collaborate on postsecondary success.
- Provide an understanding of the change process.
- Create an easy to use roadmap for program implementation.

Check out this web link <http://toolbox.pathwaystocollege.net/> to take the first steps to creating a college ready culture, and begin exploring the tools, resources, and activities available in the toolbox!

For further information, you may also email NASSP staff member, Lois Hall, at hall@principals.org.